Title: Personalization of Learning – In the Classroom and in Advisory Institute

Graduate Credits: 2.0

Semester: Summer 2009, Spring 2010

Professor: Dr. Robert C. Spear

Course Description:

This course is designed for participating middle level educators who want to develop tools to more effectively teach young adolescents. Participants will have certain latitude to investigate topics and strategies that will have the greatest individual meaning. Practical, meaningful and appropriate learning practices are the foundations of the courses.

Evaluation:

Two Credits - Course requirements (total of 30 points)

- ◆ Attend the two day Conference (12 points)
- ◆ Keep a personal journal of the conference (9 points)
- ◆ Develop an annotated bibliography of required readings (9 points)

JOURNAL: Write a journal to Dr. Spear in which you share your thoughts, observations, questions, and reflections that emerge before and from the Summer Institute experience. Reflect on each activity and include the presenter, the topic and the central message of the presentation (3 points). Also, include the conversations and professional relations that you develop during the three days (3 points). Please reflect on the total Summer Institute experiences as a whole and make commitments to yourself regarding your practice in the upcoming months (3 points). These thoughts, questions, and reflections are part of the formal evaluation. They should reflect a ‘churning and learning’ thoughtfulness.

ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY: Complete an annotated bibliography of required readings. (9 points)

Course Objectives: Personalization of Learning – In the Classroom and in Advisory Institute
Designed to Encourage Personal Connection for Increased Learning

A meaningful relationship among faculty and students enhances academic achievement. Creating personalization of student learning, developing student ownership and responsibility in a school through an advisory, supports student’s affective and academic needs. It also has relevance to the existing academic curriculum. Personal connections are necessary for successful middle level learning.

Objectives include:

- Know the Goals of Effective Advisories
- Learn the Structure and Evaluation of Advisory

- Develop Peer Support for Advisory
- Know Many Effective Advisory Activities
- Learn How to Help Students Set Goals and Refine Study Habits
- Learn How to Offer Appropriate Student Choice
- Establish an Appropriate and Effective School Climate

Required Texts:
